REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

I. INTRODUCTION

Defendant Riot Games, Inc. (“Riot”) files this Request for Judicial Notice pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 201 in support of its Opposition to Plaintiff Marc Wolstenholme’s (“Wolstenholme”) Motion for Leave to File a Second Amended Complaint (“SAC”). Dkt. 28.

In his proposed SAC, Wolstenholme claims that Riot's television series Arcane infringes his copyright to "Bloodborg: The Harvest," created between 2018-2019. Dkt. 27 at 4. He further alleges that he "added a copyright registration case number, and other evidence of Ownership of a valid copyright to this motion [for leave to amend]." Dkt. 27 at 16. Riot requests that the Court take judicial notice of the fact that the Copyright Office has not in fact granted a copyright registration to Wolstenholme for "Bloodborg" (or any other work).

The Court may properly take judicial notice of the fact that the U.S. Copyright Office has not granted a copyright registration to Wolstenholme for “Bloodborg” because this fact can be accurately and readily determined from the Copyright Office’s official records, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits A and B. The Court should therefore consider the exhibits submitted herewith in ruling on Wolstenholme’s Motion for Leave to Amend.

II. LEGAL STANDARD

A matter is judicially noticeable when it is “not subject to reasonable dispute” because it “can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned.” Fed. R. Evid. 201(b)(2). A court “must take judicial notice if a party requests it and the court is supplied with the necessary information.” Id. 201(c)(2). “The court may take judicial notice at any stage of the proceeding.” Id. 201(d).

1 III. JUDICIAL NOTICE IS PROPER OF THE FACT THAT THE U.S.
2 COPYRIGHT OFFICE HAS NOT GRANTED PLAINTIFF A
3 REGISTRATION FOR “BLOODBORG”

4 The Court may properly take judicial notice of the fact that the U.S.
5 Copyright Office has not granted any copyright registration to Wolstenholme for 6 “Bloodborg.” Whether or not the Copyright Office has granted a copyright 7 registration to a person for a particular work is a fact that is properly the subject of 8 judicial notice because it a matter of public record. See MGIC Indem. Corp. v.
9 Weisman, 803 F.2d 500, 504 (9th Cir. 1986) (a court may take judicial notice of 10 documents that are matters of public record). The existence or non-existence of a
11 copyright registration can be accurately and readily determined from the Copyright
12 Office’s records, whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned. Accordingly, 13 courts have taken judicial notice of the fact that a copyright registration has or has 14 not been granted based on the Copyright Office’s records, including the searches
15 and printouts of the Copyright Office’s Public Records Catalog online. See, e.g.,
16 Elohim EPF USA, Inc. v. Total Music Connection, Inc., 2015 WL 12655556, at *8
17 (C.D. Cal. Oct. 1, 2015) (printout from Copyright Office website judicially 18 noticeable); Ricketts v. Haah, 2013 WL 3242947, at *2 (C.D. Cal. June 26, 2013)
19 (on motion to dismiss, taking judicial notice that “according to the Copyright Office 20 database, Plaintiffs have not registered any copyrights”); ATPAC, Inc. v. Aptitude 21 Sols., Inc., 2010 WL 1779901, at *3 (E.D. Cal. Apr. 29, 2010) (taking judicial 22 notice of printout from the Copyright Office’s website “because the record is 23 generated by an official government website such that its accuracy is not reasonably 24 in dispute.”).

25 In his proposed SAC, Wolstenholme erroneously asserts that he “added a
26 copyright registration case number, and other evidence of Ownership of a valid
27 copyright to this motion [for leave to amend].” Dkt. 27 at 16. The Court may take 28 judicial notice of the fact that the Copyright Office has not granted copyright

1 registrations to Wolstenholme for “Bloodborg.”

2 This can be accurately and readily determined from the Copyright Office’s
3 records, specifically:

- 4 • Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of printouts from the Copyright Office’s
5 Public Records Catalog online showing the results of a search query
6 conducted on January 31, 2025, for any work registered with the Copyright
7 Office containing “bloodborg” anywhere in the “Title” field. See Declaration
8 of Aaron J. Moss (“Moss Decl.”), ¶ 3. These records establish that the 9 Copyright Office has not granted a copyright registration for any work 10 containing “bloodborg” in the title.
- 11 • Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of printouts from the Copyright Office’s
12 Public Records Catalog online showing the results of a search query
13 conducted on January 31, 2025, for any work registered with the Copyright
14 Office containing “wolstenholme marc” anywhere in the “Name” field. See 15 Moss Decl., ¶ 4. These records establish that the Copyright Office has not 16 granted any copyright registrations to Wolstenholme.

17 The Court should take judicial notice of the fact that the Copyright Office has 18 not granted copyright registrations to Wolstenholme for “Bloodborg” (or for any 19 other work). As set forth in Riot’s Opposition to Wolstenholme’s Motion for 20 Leave, Wolstenholme cannot state a claim for copyright infringement without a 21 registered copyright, and his proposed SAC does not, and indeed cannot, cure the 22 defects in his FAC. Thus, the Court should deny Wolstenholme’s leave to amend.
